

Ready to Read San Diego

A Guidebook of Literacy Readiness Programs for Children Five Years & Younger & Their Families.

What Are Early Literacy and Family Literacy Development Programs?

The following are components of early literacy development:

- Oral Language
- Vocabulary
- Text Comprehension
- Print Awareness
- Phonological and Phoneme Awareness
- Alphabet Letter Knowledge
- Alphabetic Principal

These activities promote early literacy development:

- Reading aloud
- Having daily conversations and dialogue
- Discussing and questioning stories
- Having printed materials easily accessible
- Using varied language
- Teaching children new words
- Creating a message board
- Turning pages of a book
- Displaying printed work
- Visiting the library regularly
- Seeing adults reading
- Rhyming and singing
- Imitating sounds
- Identifying syllables
- Writing and naming letters
- Distinguishing letters from numbers
- Attaching sounds to letters
- Sounding words out
- Recognizing words
- Explaining how to "break the code" of reading

The following promote family literacy:

- Parents learn to promote their child's language skills.
- Families have access to books.
- Families are educated about early literacy.
- Families develop literacy and language skills.

Over 175 early literacy and family literacy programs are included in the guide.

However, it does not list every resource available. The following are excluded:

- Literacy programs that do not serve children under age 5 or their families. The guide is funded by the First 5 Commission of San Diego, dedicated to supporting children ages 0 to 5 years.
- Programs that provide adult instruction only, without a children's component. The San Diego Council on Literacy provides support for and referrals to the network of literacy programs in San Diego County. Please call (888) 850-7323 to find adult literacy programs countywide.
- Full-time or general preschool and daycare programs. Preschool programs, often offered through community centers, are included if they have a specific early literacy development focus, and if their schedules are flexible in nature or part-time options are available.

Baby Sign Language Workshops

Program Description: Provides a 2-hour intensive parent-focused workshop where families learn to communicate with babies and toddlers using American Sign Language signs. The method is specifically designed for use with hearing infants and toddlers, but can also benefit babies with developmental delays. Class covers the benefits of signing, which include increased language development, decreased crying and tantrums, increased bonding, and an increased interest in books. Participants learn to incorporate signs into daily activities, playtime, songs, and storytime. Signs are practiced throughout the workshop. Babies are welcome, but should attend with 2 adults, since the class is parent-focused. Toddlers usually have a hard time sitting through the class. Classes are held at various locations in San Diego County.

Stay Length/Frequency: Class meets for 2 hours, one time.

Intake: Phone.

Fees: Fees range from $35 to $85, depending the class location and materials included.

C3, Learning and Growing Together

Program Description: Provides a series of parent-child and parent-only classes to teach parents how to enhance their child's development. The Learning and Growing series provides several class options, depending on the age of the child. All classes discuss ways in which children learn through playing, and emphasize how daily routines are important learning opportunities. Activities to support learning are also included. UNDERSTANDING AND SUPPORTING INFANT DEVELOPMENT: Parents learn what to expect as their baby grows, ways to encourage development, and how to communicate and play with their baby. UNDERSTANDING AND SUPPORTING TODDLER DEVELOPMENT: Parents learn ways to enhance their child's development during everyday routines. Emphasis is placed on the importance of parents as their child's first teacher. Topics covered over 4 weeks are: Parents Are Teachers Too; Security, Exploration, Identity; Thinking and Communicating; and Bodies at Work and Play. UNDERSTANDING AND SUPPORTING PRESCHOOL DEVELOPMENT: Based on the premise that parents are a child's greatest need, the class discusses ways to appreciate and understand a child's temperament. Parents learn ways to enhance learning and why play is so important. Topics also include child development and school readiness.

Stay Length/Frequency: Classes meet for 1.5 hours, twice a week for 4 weeks.

C3, Ready for School: Kindergarten Readiness

Program Description: Provides an opportunity for parents and preschoolers to prepare for kindergarten together. Class exposes children to a classroom setting, while teaching parents various skills to help their children succeed in kindergarten. Children have the opportunity to socialize, play, do crafts, and move in a group setting. Parents learn activities that can be done at home with their children to develop the skills necessary for kindergarten. Class promotes pre-writing and pre-linguistic skills. Parents will learn the social, cognitive, language, fine motor, and sensory motor skills needed for success in school. The importance of movement in growing and learning is addressed. Instructors will provide home activity suggestions. Class material is imparted through parent-child participation, lecture, and home activities. Class facilitator is an occupational or speech therapist.

C3, Speech and Language Development Classes

Program Description: BABY SIGNS! USING GESTURES TO STIMULATE YOUR CHILD'S LANGUAGE DEVELOPMENT: Parents learn from a speech pathologist how to use simple gestures to encourage language development and improve communication with their infants or toddlers ages 10 months to 2 years. Parents are taught to use Baby Signs to improve their child's language skills, along with specific techniques for recognizing typical markers of language development.

CHULA VISTA ELEMENTARY SCHOOL DISTRICT

LET'S TALK! HOW TO STIMULATE YOUR TODDLER'S LANGUAGE DEVELOPMENT: Parents learn specific strategies they can use at home to encourage language development in their child. A speech pathologist leads the class, teaching parents how to recognize typical markers of language development, general techniques for promoting language through play, and how to talk to children to stimulate language. Class is offered in English or Spanish. FUN WITH SPEECH SOUNDS! HOW TO INCREASE EXPOSURE AND AWARENESS OF SPEECH SOUNDS: Class is designed for parents of children who are having difficulty articulating and producing sounds correctly. Parents learn about speech sounds and techniques, and have the opportunity to practice the techniques under the guidance of a speech-language pathologist.

Stay Length/Frequency: Classes are 1 to 1.5 hours, once a week for 1 to 5 weeks.

Summer Reading Program

Program Description: Provides a reading program each summer that rewards children for reading books. Program includes crafts, performers, puppet shows, storytimes, and more. A "read to me" component is incorporated, so that children who are not yet old enough to read can participate by having family members or other adults read books to them.

Stay Length/Frequency: Program is for 2 months each summer.

Eligibility: Limited to children ages 18 years and younger.

Intake: Phone or walk-in.

Fees: No fees charged.
